WE WANT ASIAN FOOD!

Chef Lee has just opened a restaurant that specialises in Asian cuisine. He can make anything from laksa to springrolls, roti prata to sushi. But Lee's printer made a mistake when he tried to print his menu. In the menu, non-Asian dishes like buffalo wings and sirloin steak can also be found. Lee is not happy with this and needs your help to correct the errors. To make matters worse, the printer has made a mistake and printed the first and last letters of each dish in capital letters!

Now, neatly strike off the names of non-Asian dishes with a pen or marker. To help you, Lee has included pictures of Asian dishes that are on his menu. There are 17 Asian dishes altogether.

Cut along the dotted line and mail the menu to Asian Geographic JUNIOR, No.1 Syed Alwi Road, #06-01, Song Lin Building, Singapore 207628.

Two lucky winners will win an iPod shuffle and a $50 dining voucher! Include your name, contact number, email address and mailing address with your entry. The contest ends on 14 November 2009 and the winners will be announced in our January 2010 issue.
